BASE

The timeless aesthetics of the Base Appearance package feature vibrant color options and graphics that flow rearward to the tail, with the trim proudly displayed behind the rear side glass.

This classic style highlights the iconic lines of the SR Series, ensuring your aircraft is as commanding as it is unmistakable on the ramp.

CARBON

Inspired by the sharp lines seen on high-end sports cars, the Carbon Appearance package commands attention on the ground and in the air. Bold colorways are carefully selected to complement the exciting new exterior graphics, while new seat shapes and materials complete the look. Refined exterior details include the unmistakable Cirrus logo designed into the door handle, while the interior features Alcantara touchpoints and a new carbon weave texture that reflect the aircraft's bold heritage.

PLATINUM

From your first walk around, the Platinum Appearance package exudes quiet confidence.

A beautiful triple-line guides your eye, from under the propeller and around the body to the tail, to along the fuselage and under the belly of the aircraft. A new exterior color palette joins an array of new design graphics, seat shapes and interior materials to re-imagine this iconic SR Series. The luxury is in the details with Cirrus branding on the door handle and an interior finished with perforated leather, color-matched stitching and a bridge-stitch border on the seats. The package is complete with an all-new matching leather rear seat media pocket, exclusive to the Platinum Appearance.
